

Agency of
The Canadian Bank of Commerce
New York 28th Feb 1889.

J. H. GORDON } Agents
ALEX. LAIRD }
11th Story,
16 Exchange Place

The Secretary
U. S. Mint.
Philadelphia

Sir

The demand for gold dollars (small thick size) for export is greater than the supply, and we shall feel much obliged by your telling us if all further coinage of them has been stopped. - We have made enquiry at the Sub-Treasury here, and have been referred to you for the information. Apologizing for troubling you we are

Yours very respectfully.

For
Alex. Laird & Wm. Gray, Agents.

Wm. Gray

879

New York.

Feb. 28. 1889.

Agency of
The Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Asks if further Cornage of Gold Dollars has been stopped.

[Abstract:] Asks if further coinage of gold collars has been stopped.

Agency of The Canadian Bank of Commerce
New York,
February 28, 1889

The Secretary
U.S. Mint
Philadelphia

Sir

The demand for gold dollars (small thick size) for export is greater than the supply, and we shall feel much obliged by your telling us if all further coinage of them has been stopped. We have made enquiry at the Sub-Treasury here, and have been referred to you for the information. Apologizing for troubling you.

We are
Yours very respectfully.
Pro Alex, Laird & Wm. Cray, Agents
Gw. Tray